

Striving to bring about a new era of magic and Illusion, Bizzaro has been running rampant through the world of prestidigitation like mad cow disease. From working with rock bands to festivals to theme parks Bizzaro and his off the wall antics always provide a unique and memorable experience for all. With over 2 decades in the performing industry and a penchant for the unusual Bizzaro truly is the Anthrax of Magic.

From appearances on the news to national television, Bizzaro has honed his craft in not just performing original magic but strives to entertain people everywhere he goes. His live stage show is performed entirely to music making it perfect for any stage in ANY country. His close-up performance is equally entertaining and appeals to audiences everywhere.

Completely family friendly with high energy, and originality a Bizzaro show is an unforgettable experience and perfect for any occasion or venue. If it's something different you seek then look no further.

